The Period of Sincerity

Please don't confuse our compassion for your races, with a love for your planet. Please understand that they are separate with our race. We are neither pleased with your worlds riches, nor dismayed by its poverty. We come here to assist in the period of sincerity. The clarifying of the original intent of all of us is this "veedia" [holograph]. Because of lineage to your races, we returned to you.

Your bodies are the effect of the cause which is intent moved by emotion which creates physicality.

Your world is a place of veiled consciousness. In order to be embodied in physicalness all lower frequencies should be assembled in a whole intent. The very distresses, the many anxieties are the result of conflict with the limitless awareness in your races. This is the reason why your planet races cannot attain your own selves. Your desire to possess everything means this also. The reflection of the evolutionary state of your physicality, causes your races not to live comfortable on your planet. Your present religions causes your races to unify your physical bodies with your abstract egos. You call this progress. We do not. Stop looking to your physicality to bring your enlightenment. Your bodies are the effect of the cause which is intent moved by emotion which creates physicality.

During previous past times in your 3rd density, education of the soul took many, many incarnations of life and death of the physical body. Situations and reincarnations would reflect this system it appears. All beings would transcend your physicalness in accordance with the degree of the consciousness attained. Since it appears that your races having no concept of the law of consistency, became very fragmented in extremes. Religions became divisions of beliefs, and conflicts among your races took place. The worship of belief systems and idolatry came into existence.

Now the technology of advanced races in higher densities have taken control of your evolutionary systems. By means of this systems' control, the evolution of certain dimensions and reincarnations are now becoming history and by this means, your races Alex, and others than yours, have a probability of directly attaining your full essences. The reason for telling you this truth in all clarity is to free you of the conflicts and contradictions so your races can attain the truth as soon as possible. So don't ask us about yourself, ask about yourself to your own self. If your races cannot attain the truth and cannot be unified with your original intent, we will not be able to

Our Leap Of Consciousness

For thousands of years, religion and science have been at odds with each other, causing confusion, chaos, wars, fear, deception, and displacement of creative vision. We are going to witness and experience in the next 10 years (2004) the release of facts regarding our ancient languages, and the explorers of our past, and the discoveries of archeology and astronomy. These truths of our past origins will point to an incredibly bright future. To put it more simply, our new spiritual realization or leap of consciousness will come from the quiet field of science and archeology and not from religion. It is going to be science that's going to give us the boost we need for leaping. It's not going to be religion, spiritual teaching; it's going to be science, facts. It's going to say this is who we really are. This is going to be an incredible shift for a lot of people, especially the debunkers, because here they are, resting their laurels, and basing their realities on science and science is be in touch with your planet races. Since the ego consciousness in your races still goes on and since you cannot break the denial of your inner self, your race becomes detrimental to your planet and to your planetary system. At this moment, there are many beings who going to turn right around and totally blow them away on a conscious level.

The barriers of race, religious doctrine, politics and philosophy will completely shatter in the next ten years. That's 2004. By then, things

Letter From The Editor

Recently, I've had a great deal of reflection on my teachings and experiences with the friends from Andromeda. I remembered the discussions regarding children and the teachers teaching teachers, the law of consistency, and the involvement of all of race, as opposed to the few who consider themselves elite or other such crap. I've watched the Andromedans people. They, as a race, consistently expect and offer mutual respect of and to, each other. The Andromedans are a healed race, whose pride is in everyone of their culture.

After spending time with them and having then to return to our earth, there have been times that I've been embarrassed by the selfishness and destructive nature of our planetary race. What I've learned in my many, but few, years on earth about our race is this:

A human being whose heart show no passion, is a person without a life. A human being that doesn't give from the heart, is a person who will tell you lies.

A human being whose heart is committed to nothing, is a person who doesn't try to achieve anything, and has no goals.

A human being who is not willing to risk or take chances for love, is a person who is empty inside.

These things I've learned with my own interacting with our race.

I'm saddened to say that many people on our earth, carry the denial of their self-royalty. They, and all of us, are love; born of love, connected to love and created in love. Love is. And it will conquer all denial, in time. I admit that we all battle with fear within. The fear can rattle the soul, like a thunderous wind against a house. We must hold on, in the belief that still unbroken, our souls trust the light of self to guide us through the night. All the while life rushes right by us, never ceasing to wait for any of us. I've taken the time to rest and listen to my heartbeat. I stand unbending in my commitment to our race and my family. But your all must do your part. And your part is to teach what you know. It's also to hold onto your loved ones. Be eager to laugh. Be dedicated to family. And be dedicated to each other.

Every day is the sweetest day I know. And even when the memories have faded away, I'll still have the sweetest days, each day. My heart demands a change in our world. That is one of the reasons I share my experiences with you. Thank you, for your interest, and thank you for becoming the teachers you've always been. Be at one with all there is. You might as well. You already are.

Publishers Notes

All of us here involved with Letters From Andromeda offer you our most sincere apology regarding the lateness of this issue. Everything that could go wrong, has gone wrong: from printer problems, data program complications, to personal family matters.

Please understand that this is not a business for us. We look upon this work as one way in helping spread the Andromedan perspective to those who seek the truth. As each of us well know, things happen that can slow down progress at times. Even our Andromedan friends get involved with events that hold them back from contributing the latest information. Times are changing for each of us, very quickly and soon, dramatically.

Our experiences upon this beautiful planet are quickening faster than most of us are aware of. Change is in the air and the wind is poised for a gale force. All must become aware that a change in our intent can bring upon this world either great happenings or disastrous events. It is truly our choice.

Within these pages are great Truths. Terms of intent, responsibility, determination, belief and Love. All these ideals must have action taken upon them if we are to move in a direction of positive growth.

Recently I heard that it did not matter if we do anything because it has already happened. Well, I am telling you now with utmost truth and conviction, don't fall into that trap! Whether we are playing a game in the past or in the present, change based upon responsible actions set forth by your intent leads to change...regardless of the position in the time line.

I also have a message to all who know that they have certain responsibilities during this life time. You must now go about doing whatever you must do, i.e. energy, lightwork, teaching, etc. For each is important and you must complete your tasks on time. Some will finish ahead of others; they are laying the path for others to do their work as well. Time is short. What are you waiting for?

Some quick notes of importance. The Call To Action in the last newsletter has been receiving life and support globally. It is imperative that we keep this movement going. We are almost ready for Alex's presentation of our Terran Proposal to the Andromedan Council and associated member races for their consideration and responses. We will, as intended keep you advised as to the responses that come as the result of this document. I would also like to point out a publication, Life Times 1609 Stone Mtn Rd, Vilas NC 28692 (704) 297-2342, that circulates globally and embraces sharing the Andromedan information from Alex. These people and others, are very loving and are doing their part in our awakening. We urge you to check them out and show support if you feel moved to do so.

From time to time we share other sources that we feel support the Andromedan perspectives, for knowledge must be brought forward, not suppressed.

Let me close with a quote from the main character in the movie Phenomenon. "Everything is on its way somewhere." By sharing your interests and concerns with others they take with them a bit of your consciousness. Now, more than ever, we need to get out and speak our Truth. Please enjoy this newsletter. All our wishes go out to each and every one of you during the holiday season. Thank you for your patience. Go with Peace, Love, and the Knowing that the Creator is always with you as we travel and experience in creation.

will be well on their way. You'll be sitting by your televisions wanting to see the news, just to find out what they discovered today. The discoveries that we will become part of are as follows.

- Scientific proof of dimensions and higher selves/spiritual consciousness. I don't know how they are going to prove it.

- Reincarnation will be scientifically proven and demonstrated.

- The acknowledgement of other life in the galaxy and our universe. Ample proof already exists on the moon, mars and on Earth, and will be shared with humanity. Could be that we have a group of renegade scientists who just say enough is enough.

- Face to face contact with other extraterrestrial races will occur. It will actually happen a lot sooner than in ten years, but within the next ten years we will have contact with at least nine different races.

- The introduction of three clean energy devices based on the magnetic fields of energy that permeate all existence.

- The Earth is in fact hollow, and capable of sustaining human life very comfortably. Also, the existence of a city known as Calnogor within the hollow Earth originally built by Lyrans.

- The rediscovery of the lost land of Atlantis in the Atlantic, In the Pacific, a very large temple complex, still intact, once belonging to Lemuria will also be discovered.

Now according to the Andromedans, we are going to share in these discoveries. Which means, if you know the reputations of the powers that be are now, you can imagine what they are going to fight. This is what we are going to find out about.

- The reality that all we perceive in the physical is a holographic imprint that is directed and created from a higher portion of ourselves.

- Human consciousness is not in the brain, but located in its entirety in the energy field and/or the aura.

- Our past and present educational processes have not prepared us to be completely conscious creative thinkers, but more like robots that can be shaped by peer pressure.

- Organic and plant life forms do exist on seven planets and fifteen moons in our solar system.

The rediscovery that each of us is a part of the whole of the universe. We are a significant part of that idea that we call god. And god is the idea of love.

- This accelerating self discovery being experienced throughout the universe was created and activated by all of us in the universe.

- We as a by-product of extra-terrestrial genetic manipulation are possessors of a vast gene pool that has many different racial memory banks of, at least, 22 extraterrestrial races in our DNA. Because of our genetic heritage of having these 22 different races, we are all considered royalty. All we need to do is acknowledge it, acknowledge ourselves, and seize our true history.

In other words, the only fear we have is the fear of, that we are. After we accomplish this, we can free ourselves from the conditioning and programming of our creator gods and/or extraterrestrials. We need to learn to accept our uniqueness, and planetary adulthood, and know that we are our own inheritance. Only then can we honestly and maturely create our own future the way we want it to be. What is the future? Here is their definition: Responsible freedom of self-determination, becoming truly self-confident and free to unconditionally be responsible for one's self, without being coerced to accept some higher authority.

- The reason our planet has not had mass contact as a race, is because as a race, we don't remember who and what we are. In other words, we're having a severe identity crisis. It also means that there are few walking this Earth who remember other planetary existences or even previous life forms, let alone previous life times. Some have sought spiritual development through various healing methodologies and mediation in the hopes of enlightenment.

The Andromedans have taught, and are teaching, that judgements both present life and past life must be cleared from the cellular imprint of the soul. As one does achieve this, one becomes aware of other planetary existences, and one's true planetary heritage. We have limitless possibilities to be and find satisfaction, joy and fulfillment in our lives and in our relationships with one another. By rediscovering direct contact with our own essence of being, we can remember freedom that is not only freedom from external restraints but also free expression. Meaning and value of what it is to truly be a human being. Most of us have been walking around thinking this is it. Apparently our perception of this gift which we have, means severe tuning out, in their opinion. Apparently we are really blessed to have the forms we have and have the genetics that we have. This lack of self knowledge and understanding is itself the root of our problems on many different levels. Once relearned, this intrinsic freedom becomes a lived and practiced reality. That all the other freedoms will naturally follow after that. Once we have learned to take responsibility for ourselves. Apparently not on a third density level, but on the other levels as well.

cannot attain genuine respect for self and self awareness in our galaxy. They, as well, are being kept under control. Their evolutions are being made in an indirect way. Your races have also been persecuted and manipulated by other galactic races from planetary systems negatively charged other than your own. Since during your different past time periods they have tried to prove to your ancestor their own technical power, fear has been created in your races. We have returned, to convey the truth to erase these fears.

Since your planet is the site of both the most primitive and most high maturity, is very full of contradictions. Your religions which helped many to evolve, have not been released. Your races have refused to let go of a system of beliefs that have not serviced your planet for the last 453 rotations of your star. By freeing you of this, with the use of common sense we hope your races will attain your own selves and become fully independent. Be at one.

Our Moon's Forbidden History

We live in interesting times. We all share a common interest in our countries and our world. We show a temporary interest in space as new and unseen information and discoveries are shared, then that interest is incorporated into day to day survival. I would like to share with you information regarding the Moon and our Solar System. This information was shared with me by Andromedan Cosmonauts.

It is my hope that I can only add to the information and hidden revelations. As I have been reminded by my friends from Andromeda, we all have a piece of the puzzle. I offer this perspective as a piece of that puzzle. It is not my wish to detract or prove anyone incorrect. I myself have taken this information with the understanding that it is just a small part of a larger drama playing itself out in our backyard and on our home, Earth. This information was given over a period of contacts, both physical and telepathic. The following is the Andromedan perspective of our moon.

Our Moon has an atmosphere comparable in many places to that of Earth. In many of the large craters on the visible and the hidden side, the atmosphere is said to be denser than sea level on Earth. Our Moon has a small egress at its north pole, and the crust is thinly shelled in places. It is only twenty-one miles thick in some places, and thirty-five miles in others.

We've been told that our moon is dry. A million times dryer than the Gobi Desert. According to the Andromedans it all depends on where you are. They say the hidden side has many large underground lakes, huge in size. The irrigation and terra forming is occurring on the hidden side on the surface, but is occurring underground on the visible side to hide the agenda. Apollo 15 discovered and took pictures of water vapor clouds that appeared from the hidden side. This would be most odd and unusual if the moon really didn't have much of an atmosphere, as we've been told. Because clouds would be impossible.

The age of the Moon soil is 9.2 billion years old, and has compound and chemicals not found on Earth. In fact, there are many chemical compounds that were discovered, but withheld from the public. There are many more we've yet to discover because our science is not advanced enough yet. The lunar soil did not come from the rock that makes up the moon's mountains and craters. This is known to some lunar scientists. However, it's not spoken about, but in whispers. So, where did the soil come from? The Andromedans say the soil and many of the rocks come from Ursa Minor, located in a solar system named in the Orion tongue "CHOWTA", a binary sun system. We have many similarities in our system as well.

We have limitless possibilities to be and find satisfaction, joy and fulfillment in our lives and in our relationships with one another.

"CHOWTA" is a very large system, holding 21 planets and 47 moons. Our moon is said to have been made around the 17th planet in this system.

Apollo 15 discovered that portions of the moons crust is radioactive, especially near the Appenine mountains. Why were the readings so hot? The Andromedans have said it's because some nuclear waste was brought up there to be reused as a fuel supply for the space craft that the world government has built. However, many of the ships that use nuclear fuel are obsolete now. So, how was the moon brought here? It was, I'm told by the Andromedans, put into the tail of an asteroid which brought it into our solar system. This same asteroid circles our part of the galaxy every 25,156 Earth years. Andromedans have said that our moon has been inhabited periodically in it's history for 1.8 million Earth years.

Our present Moon was one of two moons that orbited it. The second moon, I'm told is the moon Phobos.

The Moon is hollow. It contains huge underground facilities built by E.T.'s and later by humans from Earth. There are seven openings into the Moon's crust, and the underground bases. Conservative scientists have wondered why so many craters seem so shallow, despite their size. The Andromedans say, it's because much of the surface was built on top of a metallic shell of a circular space craft; or "A War Carrier", as the Andromedans describe it. An example of a shallow, but large crater would be the crater Gagarin. This crater is roughly 185 miles across, but is only 4.5 to 5 miles deep. Based on the impact and size across the craters depression on the surface, the depth should be 4 to 6 times that deep. In fact, all the craters are the same;

they are too a shallow and defy known science.

Many of the craters have been artificially created. The Andromedans have said that many of the craters on the far side were in fact domed cities at one time and that they were destroyed during a war that goes back 113,000 yrs. Others were used as space craft hangers with larger craters capable of housing 200 craft. The surface bases consisted of 9 domed cities which would be equal to a small city. Small lakes or ponds were scattered along the surface. The remains of these domed structures were discovered by NSA astronauts, Russian cosmonauts, and the NASA Apollo astronauts. The true military complex of the moon is now underground. Entrances to this alien and Human base are at both poles, the Taurus Mountains, Jules Verne crater on the far side and Archimedes. These are the original entrances. The black government has created more openings and is currently expanding the underground complex. The expansion is for the operation of private scientific and military agendas for the World Order. The Andromedans also state that it was a military outpost, until it was needed in our part of the galaxy to end a rebellion that was taking place. The personnel consisted of Reptilian, half-human/half-reptilian and those who would be known as humans. Many of the original structures on the surface of the moon were destroyed during what the Andromedans refer to as the "Black League Conflict". This was a battle fought by humans of different systems that formed a secret alliance, and fought the tyranny of the Orion Empire. Continuous destruction occurred on one side of the moon as it was being transported here by space debris. The side that suffered the heaviest destruction is the visible side we see. The destruction was caused by particle beam weapons when our Moon was located in the orbit of Maldek, now a destroyed planet. Our present Moon was one of two moons, that orbited it. The second moon, I'm told, is the moon Phobos. It also has ruins on it, as does Venus which was a moon of Uranus. Uranus is abundant with plant and mammal life.

The glass that is abundantly spread over the moons surface came from the Domed cities that were once on this war carrier. I would like at this point to explain how the moon is supposed to have gravity. Now this is Andromedan science and it flies in the face of our own science. But regardless, here is the Andromedan reasons for the moon having gravity. Our sun produces a highly penetrating radiation in the electromagnetic spectrum. This frequency is approximately a trillion cycles a second. This frequency is located between the lower portion of the infrared and radar band. It is this radiation from the sun that causes gravity, not the planets rotation. Andromedan science claims that any planetary body that is 29.3 miles in size and is exposed to a sun, is capable of a gravity field. Even if it is not rotating on its axis. The Andromedans have related the following series of events to me. They have said that this information has been recorded. I have not seen this yet, so I'm relaying this information to you the reader in faith of its accuracy. Upon arriving on the surface of the moon, the NSA astronauts, together with their tour guides, the Greys, were taken to the underground facilities where the remains and skeletons of Reptilian-like beings and human beings were found, as well as, old Orion technology. This location has been identified by the Andromedans as beneath the crater named Jules Verne. The Andromedans say the size of this facility hidden under the dark side of the moon is approximately the size of New York state. These huge underground facilities contain large lakes, plant life of Earth, alien form manufacturing machinery, food storage facilities, and space craft hangers. Also, alien writing is to be witnessed on the walls in the hallways. The NSA astronauts were shown eight vaults that were sealed, but information regarding their contents has not been disclosed to me. Artificial Terra environments are being created all the time to house and support hand-picked personnel by the World Government.

The human leader of this base or facility is called Mr. Secretary. The moon now houses approximately 36,719 human beings from Earth, a small colony; only Aryans by birth. According to the work that is being done above and underground to expand the facilities, the Andromedans foresee a population of 600,000 in the very near future. Much contact is taking place on the Ladies and gentleman, this time in which we now live is and will be known in our future as the end of the innocence.

moon between regressive aliens and World Order humans.

Currently, the World Order has fifty-three Earth built UFO type space craft on the moon. Also, other weapons beings built on the moon are particle beam weapons, lasers, nuclear bomb satellites, and anti-matter weapon systems. Anti-gravity anomalies on Earth were used to send equipment and hardware to the Moon. Pine Gap, Australia and Diego Garcia Island in the Indian Ocean and Siberia in Russia were the primary launching sites. There is an atmosphere on the far side of the Moon being created on the surface for extended habitation. There is also water, lakes, and vegetation. They are literally turning the moon into a habitable colony. From there, the World Government decided to go to Mars in March of 1959. This ultra secret space program was developed and launched largely from the Soviet Union, simply because of its natural resources and size. They could virtually do everything in secret. When first arriving upon the moon, the World Order astronauts, with help from the Greys, reopened the ancient underground facility. We've had a working colony on the moon since 1961 according to the Andromedans.

When the Apollo astronauts landed on the moon, the World Order had been there for some time. This knowledge and technology was withheld from the lower levels of NASA and our military. NASA has been used as a blind to keep the people from truly knowing what was going on out there. The astronauts were silenced under threats and many remain so today.

I would like at this point to share some old history or events that the Andromedans say is important. I have not been able to find any information about these events. However, because the Andromedans specifically brought it up, I am going to share it. In 1953 Earth satellites and radar showed large objects coming towards Earth. These were Grey motherships. These time-traveling spacecraft were the same craft seen near Venus in 1787, 1788, and 1789. In the year 1645 a large moon seen near Venus, was seen coming and going four times. This was a mothership from Sirius B. In November of 1844, the large craft seen illuminating part of Mars was an Orion mothership. The same craft illuminated Mercury in 1799. Again, the same craft, which is spherical, crossed the Sun on March 26, 1859. On the eclipse of July 29, 1878, the two large glowing bodies seen between Mercury and Venus were Pleadian and Andromedan motherships, moving through our part of the galaxy. In 1783 and 1787, the large bright lights that were seen on the moon were not volcanos, they were Pleadian motherships. Along with the creation of a self-ruled government. The first on Earth; America. In the month of February, in the year 1894, the object photographed striking a huge black object was a carrier craft from Alpha Draconis. On April 4, 1892, the craft that crossed the surface of the moon was not a large bird, but was a craft that looked like it had wings. It was a craft from Alpha Draconis. This same ship was last in this solar system on January 27, 1912.

Ladies and Gentlemen, this time in which we now live is and will be known in our future as the end of the innocence. We, as a planetary race, must commit ourselves to the idea that truth must survive. We have major challenges to face, and whatever is the truth, we must do all that is necessary to stick together. We have been torn and tattered, we have been betrayed. But please, let's not give up on each other. We are capable of being heroes. We can save the world, and our freedom. We must believe in each other, and in ourselves. I love you. Be at one.

Alex

Prepare and Invest

"Alex, we have already spoken with you in detail of your races genetic transfers and reincarnation before. I will mention them again when necessary because your path and happiness depend on being able to attain the truth. Yes, we are aware of the situation of your planet shows great deviation off the right path in the sincerity period. But please if your would try to share this moment in your planets evolution as a preparation for the investments, which will be made in the very near future for your races. Since the removal of conditions by density technology, your evolution is going at a faster pace, I think you say, than before." [Note: Here Moraney paused in the middle of the talk to listen to information regarding movement of craft around Uranus. He smiled and then resumed.] "We have had to raise the frequency of your planet to move change and enlightenment along. Such a broad word you use, this word, 'enlightenment'. It was necessary. This also means that great tests of tolerances will be caused by delusionary discriminations between your peoples. At the present moment your races are carrying in your DNA genetics the influences of a thousand centuries, as your count rotations, both the positive and negative aspect. Please understand we are trying to prepare your races far advanced maturity.

At present moment many transfers occur in your planet from many different cultures and planes. Each member of the races on and in your planet will naturally exhibit their own mentality. They do and will contradict your habitual cultures. But please do not forget that we have told you about mental conflicts cause(ing) each to go through test of maturity. We determine your mentalities through the impulse signals we receive from your races chain of thoughts. Now the selection of man or woman and the situations they transcend are much more difficult, because their preparation of the future is in accordance with their levels of consciousness. There is no intercession. What ever is created will manifest itself. Alex, you cannot help all your races. Each member of your races will feel their essence in the balancing of positive and negative as they have done and it will be weighed in their own consciousness. Those who prepare and invest will be prepared for the evolution to another density. The countenance of your planet is changing quickly.

Remember

There are times when I sit and ponder, why it all must be.
We've made our choices you and I.
Amnesia, I am you and you are me.
Remember, We must create our Destiny.

The Light grows brighter each passing day, filtering through our densely woven, self-created veil.
You and I, Us and Them must listen, feel, and see within.
Onward and upward.
Remember, We must become our Destiny.

We need to know We hold the key to all that's true reality.
What We see, We feel, We make.
Following the path We chose so long ago,
We've forgotten our reasons and stumble and fall:
wearing blinders of our own Creation.
But don't lose heart, do not despair.
We are loved.
Remember, remember.
The Whole is greater than the sum of the parts.

Wake up I say, within yourselves, and radiate your essence.
Show your Self your true self-knowing.
Project your love, your Light so grand, and know the It is Truth.
Remember. We are destiny.

Protocol

Now, some of you in this room may be having contact. When the extra-terrestrials get here, sometime next year (1997) or the year after, when they physically land and they start showing themselves, it is imperative that you approach them, regardless of who they are or what they look like, as an equal, because you are a spiritual being first, and a physical being secondly. And then, you stand and you acknowledge them, looking at them directly, whether you are scared or not, and you bow without taking your eyes off them and you declare to them, "It is the manner and custom when entering my space that permission be asked." No matter how many times you say it, you must mean it. You are declaring your sovereignty. You are declaring the fact that you are who you are, and that you've got every right to be here, right now, at that moment. Because, if your don't declare your space, some species will take it from you. It's that simple. Moraney tells me that if you do this, and you mean it, they will leave you alone. Those of your who are working with people that are being abducted, please teach them this. Now, after having said this, if they ask for permission, you can say "yes or "no".

Law of Consistency

Now, the Andromedan people teach their children everything. The oldest and the wisest are the teachers, and hold nothing back from their children. Those with the most experience teach others what they know. This is called by them the Law of Consistency. They know that their children are their legacy. They don't "dumb them down" like the educational system here does. They would never ever think to do that, because they are proud of their lineage and their heritage. They know that this is who they are and their young people are who they are. Ladies and gentlemen, if you have children, you owe it to them to teach them what you know, and don't let anyone else babysit. Don't let the television babysit, because it is teaching them what to think, not how to think.

Alex

What About...?

If we have such a genetic structure involving 22 races, why do we have disease?

There are two reasons we have disease. We've totally polluted our environment, which we are responsible for. Chemicals in the water and the air; we've made a disaster out of everything, thinking that science will fix it. The second reason we are short-lived is because many tens of thousands of years ago, a great group of extraterrestrials came here and said, "Oh my god, look at these people. They're humans and they have all these genetics, and they are incredibly powerful. We can never control them unless we take away ten strands of their DNA out. Then we will be able to control them forever. They will never be able to evolve physically and spiritually at the same time." That's exactly what happened. We originally had 12 strands of DNA, ten have been taken out of us as a race, tens and tens of thousands of years ago. This is the result. We all know it's there, we just don't know how to get there. According to the Andromedans, it's our physical form that's holding us back. Our physical form was manipulated to keep us as workers.

Is there any way for us to get our DNA

It Was Once Said...

"A Constitution is not the Act of Government, but of a People constituting a Government, and Government without a Constitution is Power without a Right."

Thomas Paine
The Rights of Man 1795

"A nation united can never be conquered."

Thomas Jefferson
A letter to John Adams, 1816

"It is time for our government leaders to respect the law no less than our humblest citizen, so that we can end the double standard of justice in America."

Jimmy Carter
*39th President,
United States*

"Responsibility is unique. You may share it with others but your portion is not diminished. You may destain it, but you cannot divest yourself of it."

Hyman R Rickover
Admiral, US Navy

"We must remember that the people do not belong to the government but that the government belongs to the people."

Bernard M. Baruch
Chairman, War Industries Board

"When in doubt, tell the truth."

Because of the changes that are going on here, and certain other influences which have not been made specific to me, our DNA is now apparently stretching, and a third strand of DNA is now being formed within us. It could be that we are tired of waiting and we're calling it down ourselves - just saying enough is enough. I understand there are some extraterrestrial influences doing that, as well as this new twelfth density. It is stretching everyone's awareness and physical forms so that we adapt to the new energies that are coming in. The result is the stretching of our DNA and a new strand being added.

Getting to the year 2013 sounds really good to me. It's just the next twenty years that I'm having some trouble with. I understand where we are now, I understand the Greys are here, the Draconians are here, and I understand 2013. How do we get there from here? There will be a shedding of physical form, but no one really ever dies. Just take it one day at a time. The Andromedans would much prefer that we take responsibility for our own reality. They are very, very concerned about wanting to be our savior, especially with the connotations it has on our planet and in our consciousness. They simply do not want that role, whatsoever. Which is why certain information and certain energies are occurring that are bringing a lot of this awareness to light. People are starting to wake up and say, "Hey, what's going on?" Because, ultimately, if we do it ourselves, then we've all learned the lesson once and for all. If someone else comes in and does it for us, and it doesn't turn out, we have someone to blame, and we're not taking responsibility for it. Since the soul is eternal, we can create this all over again, if need be if we don't get it right this time. My very small part is to help. That I get it and we all get it. I hope that we'd prefer not to have to deal with this anymore.
